

Birth Month Flowers

When researching birth month flowers, occasionally I found more than one flower per month. As a florist, I choose to include the flowers that would be more durable and available for weddings.

Month	Flower
January	Carnation
February	Iris
March	Daffodil
April	Sweet pea
May	Lily of the Valley
June	Rose
July	Larkspur
August	Gladiolus
September	Aster
October	Calendula (marigold)
November	Chrysanthemum
December	narcissus
